

---

Congresswoman Halvorson is a long time supporter of Second Amendment rights. As a state legislator, Halvorson fought on behalf of responsible gun owners, collectors, and sportsmen to maintain their right to bear arms. As a signatory to the legal brief in support of an individual's right to bear arms in the landmark case of DC vs. Heller, Congresswoman Halvorson asserted her continued support of our nation's heritage and Second Amendment rights. Congresswoman Halvorson continues to be an advocate for the Second Amendment in Congress, having supported the effort to amend public lands legislation to protect hunting rights.